

Women Environmental Programme

January - March 2020 Newsletter

WEP HOLDS ANNUAL RETREAT 2020

At the start of every year, it is customary of Women Environmental Programme (WEP) to convene her Board Members and staff for an annual retreat to reflect on the activities of the organisation in the previous year and plan for the commencement of activities for the new working year. To begin the year 2020, WEP organised a four-day Annual Retreat Read more...

WEP PARTICIPATES IN WORKSHOP ON STRENGTHENING FOOD SYSTEMS IN NIGERIA

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) participated in a two-day capacity building and design workshop on strengthening food systems in Nigeria organized by Save the Children, Nigeria. The workshop had in attendance Civil Society Organizations from different parts of the country. Read more...

REVIEW OF NATIONAL POLICY ON INCLUSIVE VOLUNTEERISM

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) has made a pledge to continue in her activities on building the capacities of volunteers from diverse backgrounds regardless of their age, culture, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, religion, social status or disability and also share her past, present and future works with the Nigerian National Volunteer Service Department

(NNVS) for an enhanced data base on Volunteerism. Read more...

WEP PARTICIPATES IN GEF INTRODUCTION SEMINAR

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) participated in a three-day Global Environment Facility (GEF) Introduction Seminar in Washington DC. WEP is the Regional Focal Point for the GEF CSO Network West Africa. Read more...

WEP PROMOTES BUSINESS OPPORTUNITIES FOR WOMEN AROUND NIGER-NIGERIA BORDER

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) with support from the African Women's Development Fund (AWDF) has initiated a project: "Promoting Women's Socio-economic Rights (POSER)", aimed at promoting cross-border trade opportunities for women around the Niger-Nigeria trade corridor. Read more...

WEP PARTICIPATES IN UN WOMEN INDEPENDENT EVALUATION EXERCISE

At WEP, we recognise that evaluation is an essential part of programming as it helps in identifying successes and challenges, guiding future plans and ensuring that objectives are met. Given the ongoing collaboration between the UN Women Nigeria Country Office and Women Environmental Programme, as part of the UN Women Civil Society Advisory Group (CSAG) Read more...

WEP COMMEMORATES INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2020

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) on Wednesday, 11th March 2020 organized a programme themed: "Breaking Gender Inequalities," to mark this year's International Women's Day (IWD). The programme held at WEP's head office at Block E Flat 2 Anambra Court, Gaduwa Estate, Abuja. Read more...

WEP REGREENS NIMC OFFICE KATSINA

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) planted different species of trees at the National Identity Management Commission (NIMC) office in Katsina town, Katsina State on 17th October, 2018 to beautify the environment and address land degradation. In February 2020, our team visited the NIMC office for a monitoring visit to see how the trees were faring Read more...

WEP ENSURES SOCIAL JUSTICE FOR WIDOWS

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) advocated against inhumane treatment of widows in Bali Chamba communities in Cameroon's North West region with the aim to strengthen the advocacy capacity of widows to engage and ensuring that their rights are protected. Read more...

WEP PARTICIPATES IN AWDF CAPACITY BUILDING WORKSHOP ON MONITORING, EVALUATION AND LEARNING

At Women Environmental Programme, we believe that Monitoring Evaluation and Learning (MEL) is an integral aspect of development work. We are committed to tracking the outcome and overall impact of our projects, therefore, we seize every opportunity to sharpen our skills for the purpose of making our work visible, ensuring accountability to donors and communities. Read more...

WEP CONTINUES VOLUNTEER AND MENTORSHIP TRAINING FOR 2020 SESSION

Women Environmental Programme has kicked off her Volunteer and Mentorship Training sessions for year 2020. New volunteers were received at WEP Abuja office on 31st January, 2020 for the inaugural session of our Volunteer and Mentorship programme for 2020.

See photos...

WEP PARTICIPATES IN GCERF TRAINING ON PVE

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) participated in a two-day training on Preventing Violent Extremism (PVE) organised by Global Community Engagement and Resilience

Fund (GCERF) for organizations implementing her PVE intervention in Nigeria. Read more...

Women Environmental Programme

Block E, Flat 2, Anambra Court, Gaduwa Estate, Abuja, Abuja
Nigeria

FORWARD

mailer lite