

Women Environmental Programme

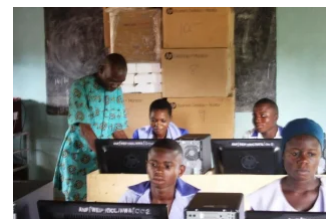

July - September 2020 Newsletter

FEC APPROVE NATIONAL ACTION PLAN ON GENDER AND CLIMATE CHANGE FOR NIGERIA

The Federal Executive Council of Nigeria (FEC) has approved the National Action Plan on Gender and Climate Change. The action plan was presented at the virtual meeting of the FEC that was presided by President Muhammadu Buhari on Wednesday, August 12, 2020. Read more...

WEP ESTABLISHES SOLAR-POWERED DIGITAL CREATIVE LABS IN COMMUNITY SCHOOLS

As part of efforts to cushion the aggravation of young children in communities being radicalized and recruited into violent sects, Women Environmental Programme (WEP) has established Solar-powered Digital/Creative Computer Laboratories in secondary schools across Ado, Agatu, Buruku, Guma, Logo and kwande LGAs of Benue state. Read more...

WEP SETS UP MENTORSHIP GROUPS FOR YOUTHS IN BENUE COMMUNITIES

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) is building the capacities of young people to become more resilient to radicalization to violent extremism by enhancing their sense of belonging and self-worth. WEP is effectively instilling a sense of purpose and providing guidance to these youths through monthly mentorship sessions in their communities. Read more...

WEP ADVOCATE FOR ORGANIC FARMING IN GWAGWALADA COMMUNITIES

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) carried out advocacy visits to Dobi and Pagadna communities in Gwagwalada to create awareness about the dangers of harmful chemicals from inorganic farm inputs and facilitate the adoption of organic farming practices in the farming communities. Read more on the visit to Dobi and Pagadna communities.

WEP PARTICIPATE IN ToT ON IMPLEMENTATION OF NATIONAL ACTION PLANS ON SGBV, VAWG, HP & SRHR

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) is participated in a Training of Trainers workshop on Implementation of National Action Plans on Sexual & Gender-Based Violence (SGBV), Violence Against Women & Girls (VAWG), Harmful Practices (HP), and Sexual & Reproductive Health and Rights (SRHR) organised by Centre for Social Justice (CSJ) in collaboration with the United Nations Development Programme/European Union (UNDP/EU). Read more...

WEP DISTRIBUTE TREE SEEDLINGS FOR PLANTING ACROSS NIGERIA

Women Environmental Programme (WEP) received from the Department of Forestry, Federal Ministry of Environment, 3000 trees seedlings as part of the Presidential Trees Planting Campaign to tackle climate change in Nigeria. Read more...

Women Environmental Programme

Block E, Flat 2, Anambra Court, Gaduwa Estate,
Abuja, Abuja
Nigeria

> FORWARD

mailer lite